ALL STAR VACATION HOMES AWARDED AAA THREE DIAMOND STATUS

ALL STAR Earns Highest Marks in Vacation Home Category

Kissimmee, Fla. (April 9, 2007) - Guests of Central Florida's ALL STAR Vacation Homes will be pleased to learn that the AAA organization has certified many homes as Three Diamond properties, the highest possible rating in the vacation home category.

In order to achieve AAA Three Diamond status, ALL STAR Vacation Homes had to undergo a rigorous evaluation based on member expectations, physical property attributes, amenities, and level of comfort provided. The approved ALL STAR-managed homes are in several communities, including Formosa Gardens and Acadia Estates, whose spacious private pool homes range from three to seven bedrooms, as well as the resort-style properties in both Windsor Palms and Windsor Hills.

The same AAA approval was also granted to several properties in the new Vista Cay community, located adjacent to the Orlando/Orange County Convention Center on International Drive. These two- to three-bedroom properties feature spacious floor plans that range from 1,112 to 2,100 sq. ft. and large entertaining and living areas in a community that offers flexible meeting space, clubhouse facilities and a multi-level deck surrounding a resort-style pool.

This recognition by AAA will also pass along savings to members, who will receive an exclusive ten percent discount at ALL STAR, and soon, members will be able to find further information on ALL STAR Vacation Homes and other certified home communities by utilizing the AAA TourBook® guide or by visiting www.aaa.com.

As North America's largest motoring and leisure travel organization, AAA provides nearly 50 million members with travel, insurance, financial and automotive services. Since its founding in 1902, AAA has been a leader and advocate for the safety and security of all travelers.
