VACATION HOME INDUSTRY EXPERT STEVE TROVER SELECTED FOR OSCEOLA RESORT AREA COUNCIL BOARD

*CEO of ALL STAR Vacation Homes
Appointed to Serve ORAC Board*

Kissimmee, Fla. (April 3, 2007) - ALL STAR Vacation Homes announces today that its CEO, Steve Trover, has been chosen to serve on the Board of the Osceola Resort Area Council (ORAC). In Osceola, one of the two Central Florida counties home to Walt Disney World, Trover will work actively in exploring issues that affect the area's thriving tourism economy.

Trover's qualification comes from ten years of professional successes, including working to grow both ALL STAR Vacation Homes and the vacation home market itself. Most recently, Trover was a driving force behind a vacation home industry public awareness campaign called "Discover Vacation Homes." Trover is the President of the promotional effort, which joined nine leading area companies together to promote the vacation home category.

He also currently serves on the Board of Directors for the Florida Vacation Rental Managers Association, and ALL STAR Vacation Home Management, Inc.

Trover is set to begin his duties as an ORAC Board Member this month.
