Few words can conjure up sweet and dreamy images like the word Disney.

A trip to Disney World is a dream come true for kids of any ages- even those that have outgrown their Mickey Mouse ears. Walt Disney World has managed to maintain its family appeal throughout the years, and continues to draw families year after year to its four theme parks.

A trip to Disney is not only a bundle of fun, it’s a vacation your family will remember for a lifetime. Step into the world of Disney, where everyone turns into a kid again. And don’t take the word “world” lightly. Walt Disney World is quite literally its own city. With a property that covers 47 square miles, you could fit the island of Manhattan in it twice, or the entire city of Manchester, England! ...

... Planning a Disney vacation can be overwhelming, especially with all the choices abounding when it comes to accommodations. The best solution is to rent a private home from All Star Vacation Homes. Relax after a long day at Disney theme parks by getting away from the crowd.
